CatholicBusinessPages.com FAQ...

I am not a church, school, business or organization. Can I become an Affiliate?

Yes! Anyone, including consumers, who support and endorse the Catholic Business Pages mission statement above, can become an Affiliate and get paid commissions. Commissions are paid on those businesses you direct to the web site that sign up to advertise. Please be aware...you must either have an active web site, or explain what other methods you will use to promote CatholicBusinessPages.com, via e-mail, telemarketing, etc.

How does CatholicBusinessPages.com choose which Affiliate applications to approve?

Each application will be manually reviewed. To be approved, it must satisfy the following requirements:

- All application information must be accurate and verifiable.
- You must either have an active web site, or explain what other methods you will use to promote CatholicBusinessPages.com via member e-mail lists, weekly bulletins, student flyer, etc. If you do not have a web site, CatholicBusinessPages.com will issue you a promo code which can then be effectively tracked.
- Affiliate web sites cannot contain any of the following:
 - Adult or mature content
 - Any profane or inappropriate language
 - References to illegal drugs or drug paraphernalia
 - Violent or hateful content
 - Anything that references illegal content or promotion thereof
 - Any Pro-choice/Pro-abortion references or links
 - Any insulting references to ethnic background, culture, or religion

How do I promote my Affiliate Program to make it profitable?

Following your approval as an Affiliate, you will place the CatholicBusinessPages.com banner link(s) on your web site. Visitors to your web site will become aware of the opportunity. But don't stop there! All Affiliates will be provided with an electronic advertising media kit for their Affiliate Program. All of these components are totally free to Affiliates. We will provide suggestions for weekly church bulletin announcements; flyer designs for students to take home from school for support; suggested e-mail text to reach the members of your organization. If your Church, School or Organization needs to more aggressively generate donations for a focused project, suggested telephone scripts will be provided for staff members which will assist them in making professional and courteous contacts to business owners who are connected to your organization. It is important to be aware that there is a tremendous advantage and opportunity to businesses who advertise on CatholicBusinessPages.com.
